regular readers of this column may recall a study that was published a while back implicating a genetic lack of ugt in cases involving kidney damage in high-dose-steroid users please do not take the first dose the placebo effects...are very real